

IF YOU LOSE YOUR WAY...

The Broadway and Grinstead entrances are connected by a solid white line. Broken white lines intersect the solid lines which will eventually lead you to an entrance. A solid yellow line marks the road from the Grinstead entrance to Col. Harland Sanders' lot. A green line marks the road from the Main Administration Office to Muhammad Ali's lot. All sections are marked by cedar signs and are shown on the map by the symbol "•".
